This little husky ran the dogsled race last year and will be part of this year's Fourth of July events as well. The joy of music was shared by all ages at last years talent show

Story by Jocelyn Bright-Smith

Remember getting caught in the rain at Friendship Park last Fourth of July? Everyone huddled under tents and carried with umbrellas of every color as they wading through puddles and slid in the mud. It was fun, but not quite as fun as you expected the day to be.

As a result, our Independence Day celebrations will be held at Pendleton Field this year. The events will be better off for the new location. If it rains, there's artificial turf, so no mud, and you'll be close enough to the fitness center to escape any driving rain in a matter of seconds. There will also be plenty of space to spread out the events. There are a couple new restrictions however. No pets will be allowed at events and smoking will be permitted only in designated areas.

The 4th of July is a day of celebration and Child and Youth Services (CYS) and local several Family Readiness Groups are teaming up to make sure it will be a great day for children of all ages.

The children's activities will begin at 3 p.m. on Friday, July 4. For the school age kids, there

Bamberg High athletics to benefit from sports complex upgrades

Story by Trecia A. Wilson

As you drive by Pendleton Sports Complex, you are sure to see a variety of construction efforts in progress.

"We are combining the multi-purpose field and the baseball field to allow us to have a larger space for high school athletics," said David Thompson, Director of Department of Public Works.

These upgrades involve a variety of things including removing the fence and the overhead lights between the two fields, as well as leveling the two fields. The multi-purpose field will also have routine maintenance and repair performed including new topsoil, re-seeding and repair of the underground sprinkler system.

Another improvement will come in the form of a new press box between Pendleton field and the upgraded multi-purpose field. The location of the press box is ideal because it will have views of both sports fields enabling usage for events at either.

Other repairs and upgrades to the complex include a long jump area, constructing a shot put and discus area, minor repairs to the running track on Pendleton field, and cleaning and sanding the artificial turf (scheduled turf maintenance).

With the influx of students coming to Bamberg from Wuerzburg and Schweinfurt, Bamberg High School will move from a 3A school to a 2A school. As a result, the athletic program will increase accordingly and the improvements to the sports complex are much needed.

Michael Haut drives (above) and Susnik Felix (right) use teamwork as progress continues on the Pendleton Sports Complex repairs and upgrades. The project is expected to be completed prior to the beginning of the high school athletics season. Photo by Jocelyn Bright-Smith

"All maintenance and upgrades will be complete and ready for use in time for the fall athletic season," said Thompson, adding "These repairs will really improve things for Bamberg High School athletics."

will be inflatable slides and a bungee trampoline. On the trampoline, the children will be harnessed; the goal of the harness is to keep the child safe while letting them jump higher than they are able. They can get both stick-on and airbrush tattoos as well.

Younger children will be able to win prizes for playing games like bean bag and ring toss and balloon popping. They will also be able to get their faces painted and make picture frame crafts. Other games include a fishing game and a game of ducks in the water, where the kids can choose a numbered duck from the water and receive a prize.

To top it all off, there will be five Huskies to pull a sled around the track for an exciting dogsled race! Mrs. Nelly/Nellie Langhorn, a Bamberg spouse, is providing her huskies for the dogsled races. The dogs will pull contestants on a four-wheeled sled around the track during the race. The wagon can hold up to two small children or one bigger child/adult. Although the dogs will be out at the field early, races will not begin until later in the day. All dogsled rides are free.

The 4th of July events will kick-off at 9 a.m. with a golf tournament and end at 10 p.m. with the fireworks.

Bookworms inch their way to Bamberg's Summer Reading Program bugs by reading and field trips which will continue each Tuesday through July 29.

Once the "June bugs" had gathered at the library, Lazzeri told them about the project and the program goals for the summer. After listening to their assignment, each child had the opportunity to choose and check out books from the library and enjoy the refreshments that were provided. All bookworms who attended were encouraged to read fifteen books (about three books a week) and those that do will be rewarded each week with a fun bug experience. The bookworms were rewarded for attending with "bug bags" full of assorted bug gear as well as lollipops and handouts.

On the first trip, July 1, they will partner with Outdoor Recreation and go to Engineer Lake where the kids will hunt insects with their new butterfly nets and other gadgets from their bug bags. On later trips they will take a trip to a "butterfly paradise" near Bayreuth to watch and learn about butterflies and their life cycles or "evolution." Their last two trips are to the Bamberg Natural Museum and the Nurnberg Zoo.

Lazzeri plans to end things with a bang. On July 29, the kids will help decorate her Volkswagen Beetle with bugs of their own to create what Lazzeri calls a "super bug."

Have you caught the "Reading Bug" yet? If not, be sure to crawl your way down to the Bamberg Community Library for this summer's reading program.

Steven Gonzales shows off his new finds during the opening ceremonies of Bamberg Community Library's Summer Reading Program. The program will meet every Tuesday with various outings around the Bamberg area.

Garmisch invites all to Independence Day bash

*By John Reese
USAG Garmisch Public Affairs*

GARMISCH, Germany – Looking for a place to visit during the July 4 weekend while also celebrating Independence Day? If so, U.S. servicemembers, civilian employees, family members and guests are invited to enjoy a 4th of July Independence Day County Fair being held on the Artillery Kaserne here.

The event, hosted by U.S. Army Garrison Garmisch, will be even "bigger and better than last year's," said Steve Gauthier, director Family, Morale, Welfare and Recreation.

"This is an old-fashioned American-style county fair to include pie-baking contests, barbecue-style food and beverages, traditional picnic games, live entertainment, softball and other sports activities," said Gauthier.

Additionally, event organizers have added a chili cook-off and expanded some of the games.

No beans about it, the chili cook-off should turn out to be a hotly contested competition. Two kinds of chili – traditional and maverick – can be entered. Traditional chili guidelines are the same as those used by International Chili Society. One of the early entrant teams is led by a past Installation Management Command champion who has competed several times in the ICS cook-off.

The fair will begin with a 5k fun run at 9 a.m., followed by a co-ed softball tournament at 9:30 a.m. A traditional Bavarian beer tapping will coincide with the opening of the food booths at 11:30 a.m.

For directions, contest rules, entry forms and general information about the fair, call USAG-Garmisch FMWR at DSN 440-3702.

There are no admission costs or contest entrance fees.

BAMBERG, Germany — The 16th Special Troops Battalion, 16th Sustainment Brigade, welcomed a new human resources company and logistics task force to the fold during an activation ceremony here June 18 at Summerall Field.

"Though my husband, Matthias, and our son Alex are staying in Virginia until July, we are thrilled to be assigned in Germany and to be part of the Bamberg community," Wandler said. "It's an exciting time to be back with the 38th and to serve once again, in this tremendous unit and to be a part of its future as a modular HR company."

The company will play an important role in the brigade, said Command Sgt. Maj. Gregory Williams, command sergeant major, 16th STB.

38th HRC

"Our mission has changed to one of modular, platoon-level deployments," Elston said. "In the past we deployed as a detachment under personnel services battalion structure."

The company of about 100 Soldiers is comprised of a headquarters and five postal platoons, Elston said. Two platoons are currently deployed and the rest will deploy within a year.

The other activating unit in the ceremony, the Logistics Task Force — Alpha, comprised of about 40 Soldiers and civilian contractors, will provide fuel, food and water, maintenance, signal, and medical support to area units in Iraq, and also command and control, said Capt. Charles Ausman, commander, LTF — Alpha.

"The task force was stood up to provide the oversight and logistical support for the mission," Ausman said. "All the personnel were hand-selected to serve in this relatively austere and challenging environment apart from the brigade and battalion. We'll work to ensure the flow of supplies continues to move through the border and to be the eyes and ears to the commander about what is going on through the checkpoint."

Keep your skin healthy campaign

All too often, the importance of the skin to health is underestimated. Of around 25,000 confirmed cases of occupational disease in 2005, the statutory accident insurance institutions noted some 9,500 cases of occupational skin disease. Skin diseases are therefore the largest category of occupational diseases, by a clear margin. High costs are also incurred by the health insurance institutions. Altogether, the direct costs attributable to skin diseases amount to some four billion Euro each year.

Skin diseases cause human suffering and often result in abandonment of the occupation. Insufficient knowledge of skin protection might be one of the reasons for the high incidence of skin diseases.

Therefore the Center of Health Promotion and Preventive Medicine - Europe (CHPPM-EUR) decided to join the German "Hautschutzkampagne" together with USAREUR and USAFE. Under the motto: "Your skin. The most important 2m2 in your life", the Healthy Skin Campaign is therefore promoting greater respect for the largest organ in the human body.

This campaign is supported by many accident insurance and health institutions. For the US Army in Europe external support is mainly rendered by the federal accident insurance carrier (Unfallkasse des Bundes) and the German Statutory Accident Insurance - "Deutsche Gesetzliche Unfallversicherung - DGUV"

CHPPM-EUR and USAREUR Safety Division in joint cooperation with UK-Bund and IMCOM-EUR are providing "The 2 square meter Show", a kick-off presentation in support of the Healthy Skin Campaign. This approx. 1 ½ hour training is open to everybody of the respective USAG (Soldiers DAC, NAF, LN & family members) This training will be conducted at each USAG and Ramstein Airbase as indicated in the event schedule. Registration is NOT required. More info: <http://www.2m2-skin.army.mil>. The event will be held on July 8 at 2 p.m. at the Reel Time Theater, bldg. 7022.

Sandkirchweih to become safer

The City of Bamberg wants to adjust their existing Sandkirchweih curfew. In previous years the fest only extended to the edge of the "Sand" district, but recently, with the popularity of this premier event growing, the tendency is for visitors to spread out their celebrations into other areas of downtown. As a result, officials and organizers are thinking of establishing an earlier curfew that controls the established area of the Sandkirchweih as well as expands to include the area up to the train station.
